

Patient Symptom Assessment Report

Date: April 21, 2024

Patient ID: 001234567

Initial Symptom Description

Please describe your symptoms:

Patient reports experiencing severe headaches, intermittent fever, and nausea.

Detailed Symptom Description from Audio Capture

Describe your symptoms in detail:

Patient states that the symptoms have been persistent for the past three days, worsening at night.

The headaches are primarily located in the frontal lobe and can be debilitating.

Additional Questions and Responses

How long have you been experiencing these symptoms?

Symptoms began roughly three days ago, shortly after returning from a hiking trip.

When did you first notice your symptoms?

I first noticed the symptoms when I woke up feeling unwell on Wednesday morning.

Can you describe the pain intensity on a scale from 1 to 10?

The pain intensity fluctuates but averages around 7 out of 10.

Summary and Next Steps

Thank you for providing detailed information about your symptoms. A healthcare provider will review your submission and contact you shortly to discuss further diagnostic steps and potential treatments.

Please ensure that your contact information is up to date in our records to facilitate prompt communication.